A holder of series B shares has the right to demand conversion of their series B shares into series A shares in accordance with this Article 5 at a 1:1 conversion ratio. A series B share shall be considered to have been converted into a series A share once the entry into the Finnish Trade Register has been made.

Conversion of series B shares into series A shares may be demanded at the earliest when a conversion right has become exercisable in accordance with "Conversion based on the Share Price Limit" below, unless the conversion right has been exercised in accordance with "Conversion based on certain Conversion Events" below.

Conversion based on the Share Price Limit

Any conversion right becomes exercisable, and shall always remain exercisable, after the trading day on which the closing price of the series A shares on Nasdaq Helsinki, or other regulated market or an MTF on which the series A shares have been admitted to trading on the company's application, during any ten (10) days in the period of any consecutive thirty (30) trading days calculated after the date on which the company's General Meeting decides to approve an acquisition as referred to in section 2.18. of the Nasdaq Helsinki "Rulebook for Issuers of Shares" (version entered into force on 1 January 2024), equals or exceeds the below threshold of a series A share ("Share Price Limit"):

If the company, at any time while series B shares are outstanding, pays a dividend or makes a distribution in cash, securities or other assets on series A shares (a "Dividend"), then the Share Price Limit shall be decreased, effective immediately following the record date of such Dividend, by the amount of cash and the fair market value (as determined by the company's Board of Directors in good faith) of any securities or other assets paid on a series A share in respect of such Dividend, on a euro-for-euro basis.

Conversion based on certain Conversion Events

All series B shares can be converted into series A shares immediately following the announcement of a Conversion Event.

A written demand addressed to the company concerning the conversion shall specify the relevant Share Price Limit(s) or a Conversion Event, the number of shares to be converted and the book-entry account in which the book-entry securities representing the shares have been recorded. The company may request a restriction on the disposal right of the shareholder to be entered on the book-entry account of the relevant shareholder for the period of the conversion procedure. After the conversion, no new series C shares may be issued.
